

Annual Conference 2022

Inter-generationality:
Challenges and Prospects

Swansea University, Singleton Park Campus

6-8 July

Conference programme

at 1 June 2022

Programme Overview

Wednesday 6 July
11:00	Registration, coffee, buffet lunch from 11:45 (Taliesin)
12:30	Welcome Address (Chair, SPA) Welcome by organisers
13:00 – 14:20	Plenary session 1: Minouche Shafik*
14:30 – 16:00	Paper session 1
16:00 – 16:30	Break
16:30 – 18:00	Paper session 2
18:00 – 18:45	SPA AGM
18:45 – 19:30	Publishers' reception
Thursday 7 July
09:00 – 10:30	Paper session 3
10:30 – 11:00	Break
11:00 – 12:15	Plenary session 2: Generations in a Small Nation
12:30 – 13:15	Lunch (Taliesin)
13:15 – 14:45	Paper session 4
14:45 – 15:15	Break
15:15 – 16:45	Paper session 5
16:45 – 18:15	Plenary session 3: Covid Realities
18:15 – 19:00	Inside REF 2021: Nick Ellison (Chair of UoA 20)
from 19:15 (National Waterfront Museum)	Publishers' reception Conference dinner President's Address: Baroness Lawrence SPA Annual Awards
Friday 8 July
09:00 – 10:30	Paper session 6
10:30 – 11:00	Break
11:00 – 12:30	Paper session 7
12:30 – 13:15	Lunch (Taliesin)
13:15 – 14:30	Plenary session 4: Chiara Saraceno*
14:30	Closing remarks
14:45 – 15:30	SPA Executive meeting

Paper sessions

Rooms to be confirmed

Wednesday 6 July

Paper Session 1: 14:30 – 16:00
(Symposium)  Understanding new directions in activation policy: experiences, partnerships and place	Lukas Lehner  Anne Green  Katy Jones  Ingun Borg	Employing the unemployed of Marienthal: Evaluation of a guaranteed job program  Why localise employment policy? Advantages and disadvantages of a place-based approach  Exploring employers' experiences of Universal Credit and Active Labour Market Policy  Universal Credit In-Work Progression: Using the Capability Approach to understand People, Places and 'Productive use of time'
(Symposium)  Climate justice, social policy and the energy crisis	Matthew Scott*  Carolyn Snell  Harriet Thomson	Red October: assessing policy mitigations in a time of energy crisis and climate crisis  Understanding vulnerability to the net zero transition in the UK: a conceptual framework  Reporting the activities of the CUSP group: a framework for mainstreaming climate change within social policy
Poverty	Raymond Tang (for Chee Hon Chan)  Maria Clara Oliveira [needs to be Wed or morning of Thurs]  Juliet Stone	The innovativeness of a social innovation fund for poverty relief: Experience from Hong Kong  The conflict-poverty nexus: examining the case of Cabo Delgado  Poverty at the end of life in the UK
Impacts of COVID	Lizzie Ward*  Meret Lütolf*  Maria Cheshire-Allen	An Intergenerational Divide in the context of Covid-19?  What remains? Restructurings within families' organization of work and care due to Covid-19 measures  COVID-19 impact on the support and management of older people in Wales: The COSMO study
Families 1	Jiayu Zhang	Comparison between Generations of the Family's Role in Long-term Care Provision for the Aged in

	Ruth Webber  Lucy Grimshaw	China: A Case Study of Guangzhou  "I was the bank for mum and dad": The financial arrangements of families where young adults live with parents in low-income households  Inter-generational familial solidarity: Experiences of kinship carers in the north east of England
Social Care 1	Jenni Suen*  Valentina Zigante  Juliette Malley	A systematic review of typologies on aged care system components to facilitate complex comparisons  How can the adult social care sector develop, scale and spread innovations? A review of the literature from an organisational perspective  Understanding the character of innovations in adult social care in England: a novel application of scoping review methods for informing an under-researched area
Education	Caitlin Webb  Carl Purcell  Paulo José Whitaker Wolf*	Levelling up education opportunity: an exploration of the UK governments levelling up agenda  Feeling the Pressure? The Role and Responsibilities of Designated Safeguarding Leads in Schools  Early childhood care and education services in Brazil: characteristics and challenges
Paper Session 2: 16.30 – 18:00
(Symposium)  SPA Employment and Social Security Group, part 1	Sharon Wright  Ben Baumberg Geiger  Lisa Scullion  Thomas Rochow	'Heroes or villains? Migrant essential workers and social security during Covid-19'  Hunger and the welfare state: Food insecurity among benefit claimants in the UK  Veterans, Covid-19 and the benefits system - what happens when 'business as usual' resumes?  Anger and Alienation: Understanding the emotional response to the threat, and experience, of benefit sanctions among young people
(Symposium)  'Building Back Better': Reflections from Covid Realities on future directions for social security	Ruth Patrick  Maddy Power	Hope/lessness & social security: narratives, policies & acts of resistance  "There are a substantial number of White families in this area who

	Katie Pybus  Jim Kaufman	couldn't care less about education and schools": Whiteness, racism and food charity  Pressure upon pressure: Social security as a public mental health intervention  Covid-19 and the melancholic crisis of reform
Climate Emergency	Ben Edwards  Elen Stokes*  Elke Heins	Bushfires, floods, drought and pandemics and the implication for the mental health of children and adolescents: Vulnerability and resilience in an Australian national birth cohort study  Ministries for the Future  Varieties of Just Transition? International Organisations and Eco-Social Policy Approaches
Children, Care and Well-being	Helen Norman  Stefan Kühner  Ruby Chau	How does fathers' childcare involvement affect children's educational attainment in the first year of primary school in England?  The Moderating and Mediating Role of Psychosocial Social Capital in the Relationship Between East Asian Children's Socioeconomic Status and Subjective Well-Being: Evidence from South Korea, Taiwan, and Hong Kong  Productivism and children's rights to early childhood education and care (ECEC) and informal care
Exploitation and Exclusion	Ndiweteko Nghishitende  Bozena Sojka  Patricia Hynes*	Women's journeys after 'modern slavery' in the United Kingdom: Motherhood as an important 'social location' of analysis for policy consideration  Challenges of support for children and families with no recourse to public funds (NRPF) in policy and practice during Covid-19 pandemic.  Children and Young People affected by Human Trafficking and/or 'Modern Slavery' in the UK
Older People	David Pritchard*  Cemre Canbazer Sanli*	Ageing and missing persons: examining the multi-disciplinary boundaries of missing person incidents amongst older people  The Active Ageing Paradigm and the Labour Market Activation of the Elderly Population in Turkey: A Qualitative Documentary Analysis

	Steve Rolfe	Responsibility for enabling ageing-in-place: Exploring the role of social housing providers in relation to assistive technology for older people
Work 1	Matt Dickson* Andrew Dunn* Mo Moldir Kabylova	The Scarring Effect of Graduate Underemployment: Evidence from the UK Attitudes to Work and Time Spent Unemployed: Evidence from the Longitudinal Study of Young People in England (LSYPE)/Next Steps Factors contributing to and preventing mothers of children 1-6 aged from participating in the labour market in Kazakhstan

Thursday 7 July

Paper session 3: 9:00 – 10:30
(Symposium) Taxation and Social Policy, part 1	James Gregory Karen Rowlingson Paul Bridgen	Homes, Housing and Taxation Wealth Taxation: the case for reform A fairer path to Net Zero: the current impact of UK environment-related taxation and how this needs to change
(Symposium) Housing and the Wider Welfare State: Addressing the challenges	Katie Colliver* Alex Marsh Katherine Hill	Incoherent and indefensible? A normative analysis of young people's position in the UK's social security and homelessness systems Asking the impossible? Trying to manage the pressures on social housing through allocations policy Independent but intertwined: Young adults living with parents and the social security system.
Disability and Wellbeing 1	Katrine Callander* Becki Meakin* Anne Collis	Autistic women and Late Diagnosis: Excluded Subjectivities Behind Closed Doors: The longer-term impacts of COVID-19 on independent living for d/Deaf and Disabled people 'Are we nearly there yet?' 50 years of policy journey in Wales towards an ordinary life for people with learning disabilities
Social Mobility and Young People	Louise Gazeley* Dorota Szpakowicz* Laura Bentley	Understanding differences in prospective first generation entrants' higher education decision-making in England: an ecology of intersecting influences. Does Scotland truly get it right for every young person? Theoretical and empirical analysis of the NEET-focused policy landscape in Scotland. Social mobility, COVID-19 and a 'lost generation' of young graduates: The case of working-class women
Civil Society 1	Meta Zimmeck Elizabeth Cookingham Bailey	PPE Volunteers 'step up' during the pandemic: Some lessons for theory and action Fighting at the margins: The advocacy functions of the voluntary sector during the COVID-19 pandemic in Wales and Scotland

	John Mohan	The UK's charities before and during the Covid pandemic: expectations and evidence
Social Protection 1	Rana Jawad  Ijin Hong*  Antonios Roumpakis	Social assistance and social protection in developing country contexts: Evidence from the Middle East and North Africa (MENA) region  Diversity of welfare types in China: An assessment based on provincial-level social expenditure data  Towards a gendered welfare state typology: a comparative analysis of selected OECD and East Asian welfare states
Stakeholders and Collaboration	Angelica Börjesson*  Elizabeth Such  Margarita Barer	David against Goliath? The silent clash of authoritative knowledge in the Swedish social insurance system  Policy collaborations to reduce inequalities. A systematic review of the dynamics of intersectoral collaboration  Transparency in Local Government: Exploring the Citizens' Beliefs and Attitudes Toward Transparency through a Systematic Review of the Literature
Paper session 4: 13:15 – 14:45
(Symposium) Intergenerational research and practice for sustaining social care in the UK, part 1	Jelena Sakure  Stephanie Green  Mirain Roberts	Introduction  Intergenerational research and practice for sustaining social care in the UK  Challenges and obstacles facing intergenerational projects pre and during covid.
(Symposium) SPA Employment and Social Security Group, part 2	Jane Millar  Cara Molyneux  Levana Magnus  Laura Robertson*	Round up the usual assumptions: Universal Credit and behaviour  'Flex-able' Working: Disabled People and Small and Medium Size Enterprises  Activating coupled parents: Work coaches' experiences of delivering labour market activation under Universal Credit  Serving the Future: reducing and preventing in-work poverty in the hospitality sector in Scotland
Ethnicity and Migration 1	Sebnem Eroglu	Are migrants more satisfied with their lives than stayers? Evidence from a multi-site and intergenerational study

	Rattiya Fisher  Palash Kamruzzaman	Ethnic minorities and COVID-19: Lessons learned and future provision  Sustaining support for the Rohingya Refugee Response conference - staging Hamlet without the Prince of Denmark?
Social Divisions 1	Peter Matthews  Remo Siza  Kate Summers	LGBT+ assets and welfare in the UK  The shifting relations of the middle class and the welfare state  An Anatomy of 'Covid Exceptionalism': how benefit claimants during Covid-19 constructed 'them' and 'us'
Families 2	Kjetil Lundberg*  Hilde Danielsen  Carl Purcell	Temporality and trust in complex family interventions – views from family coordinators  Small moments or turning points for long-term poor families? Norwegian Parents' experiences of having a family coordinator  Family Replacement Care: The Development of Shared Lives Schemes in England
Civil Society 2	Amy Sanders  Jason Wood  Wendy McKeen	Paragons or pariahs? The positioning of children and young people in how local civil society manifests polarisation  The power to act: charting the evolution of community organising in the UK  The Practice of "Contained Critique" by Progressive Social Policy Actors in Ontario's Poverty Debate of the Past Decade
Disability and Wellbeing 2	Dilshan Fernando*  Grace Chang  Tammy Campbell	The Limited Use of ICT Solutions for Peripheral Inaccessibilities Faced by People with Disabilities in Myanmar  Is more screen time bad for adolescent wellbeing?  What can birth month disparities tell us about problems with the systems that should serve children with 'Special Educational Needs and Disabilities'?
Social Justice	Tim Fowler  Hartley Dean*	Are you OK, Boomer? The case for the social integration of the elderly  Altruism or Sociality?

	Gideon Calder	Questioning the essential foundations of intergenerational dependencies  Children's Health and Opportunity Pluralism
Older People and Veterans	Rosannah Hutton  Javiera Cartagena Farias*  Steve Rolfe	"Prison ain't a place for older guys:" Exploring how the absence of a national policy strategy for older prisoners has translated into lived experience.  Housing conditions and long-term care needs in the older population in England  A satnav for veterans: Measuring the social impact of a one-stop shop for ex-Services personnel
Paper session 5: 15:15 – 16:45
(Symposium) Social Care Inequalities	Nicola Brimblecombe  Tania Burchardt  Charlotte Paddison*	The social and economic determinants of inequalities in unpaid carer's health, employment status and social isolation  Inequalities in care need, unmet need and experience of services  How far how we come in improving support for unpaid carers? Understanding the gap between policy ambition and evidence of success
(Symposium) Intergenerational research and practice for sustaining social care in the UK, part 2	Jelena Sakure  Lois Peach  Kate Howson	Introduction  Researching intergenerational inter/intra-action: Stories from a 'socially distanced' intergenerational programme in care home gardens  Exploring the role and impact of care staff in the IG care home model
Families 3	Sunwoo Ryu  Youngmin Seo*  Alexandra Chapman	The politics of child-related cash benefits in South Korea  Assessing and Enabling Research Use in Policymaking: Multiple Case Studies of Birth Cohort Study for Early Child & Family  Why does Northern Ireland not have a Childcare Strategy?
Policy Impacts	Nikhil Woodruff  Budhi Dharma	Effects of UK tax-benefit programs on different age groups  Does Indonesia's Social Protection System ensure Indonesia achieving Indonesia Emas (the Golden Indonesia) in 2045?

	Clementine Hill O'Connor*	An End to Policy Silos? Analysing UK policy efforts to use complex systems modelling to reduce inequalities and achieve inclusive growth
Health 1	Volkan Yilmaz  Zeynep Kesici*  David Alemna*	Changing relations between government and private providers in hybrid healthcare systems during the COVID-19 pandemic  Seeking healthcare in the Turkish internal market: A study on breast cancer patients  From Aggregations to Multimethod Case Configurations. Case Diversity in Quantitative Analysis when explaining COVID-19 Fatalities
Civil Society 3	Nazli Kazanoglu  Chloe Alexander  Matthew Barber-Rowell	Understanding the moral economy of state-civil society relationships: Islam, women's NGOs and rights-based advocacy in Turkey  If social enterprise is the solution, what is the social care problem?  Curating Spaces of Hope: Exploring the potential for Faith Based Organisations (FBOs) in a post-Brexit and post-pandemic policy landscape
Work 2	Nicola Yeates*  Alessio Bertolini  Vicente Silva	What is global about youth unemployment? Reflections from a social policy study  Platformising Informality, One Gig at a Time  The Schumpeterian consensus: the new logic of global social policy to face the fourth industrial revolution

Friday 8 July

Paper session 6: 09:00 – 10:30
(Symposium)  Social Care in the 4 Nations of the UK	Catherine Needham  Tamara Mulherin  Maria Cheshire-Allen  Susan Hughes & Ann Marie Gray	Ending policy drift: England's social care reform in comparative perspective  The b/order work of social care managers in the seamful carescapes of Scotland - insights from a multi-sited, interorganisational ethnography.  What is well-being in the context of family care, and why does it matter? - Findings from a qualitative study in Wales  Developing Social Care Policy in a Policy Vacuum: challenges and opportunities in creating a sustainable adult social care system in Northern Ireland.
(Symposium)  Taxation and Social Policy Symposium 2	Isabel Crowhurst*  Sally Ruane*  Adrian Sinfield*	Comparing the taxation of commercial sex in Europe: experiences and negotiations with fiscal arrangements  Why have National Insurance increases and the new Health and Social Care Levy been controversial?  Analysing fiscal welfare and tax expenditures – the value of new sources
Cross-Generational Issues and Impacts	Jiaxin Liu  Junko Yamashita  Penelope Laycock	Two levels of agency: the negotiation of intergenerational support arrangement in Chinese families.  The Intersection of Care Regime and Gender Regime: the Limited Impact of the Expansion of Publicly Funded Care on Women's Responsibility of Multigenerational Care  Impacts of substance use across generations
Ethnicity and Migration 2	Ilona Pinter  Andrew Jolly  Margaret Greenfields & David Smith	'They know that they are not living their childhood': Longitudinal interviews with children and parents receiving Asylum Support in the UK  Children and Families who are subject to immigration control: Learning from Case Reviews  Older EU migrants' access to public services and support in the post-Brexit Environment

Health 2	Volkan Yilmaz Editor Musekiwa Talia Malinoff Nathan, Galia Fuchs &amp; Fany Yuval	Populism, health and healthcare: Towards a better understanding Personal Health Budgets: Exploring how they deliver choice and control for people with complex healthcare needs. Municipal Management of Services Supporting Residents' Healthy Lifestyles in Normal Times and Emergencies
Social Divisions 2	Sarah Pickering Vered Uziel Kathryn White	The 'perfect storm': food banks and food insecurity during the Covid-19 pandemic The Impact of Public Transportation on Gender Equality in the Municipal Space Let Justice Roll Down Like Waters: Eviction Reform and the Experience of Justice for Low-Wealth and Vulnerable Families
Social Care 2	Ming-Fang Chang Nur Hairani Abd Rahman* Sigrid Betzelt	Family Welfare or State Welfare? Problem Construction in Long-Term Care Policy: Comparing Taiwan and Japan Availability of social care for older persons in Malaysia: addressing the needs to confront ageing population phenomenon Precarious support and its emotional underpinnings. The uneasy social care settlement in 21st century Germany
Paper session 7: 11:00 – 12:30
(Symposium) Social Care Inequalities	Nicola Brimblecombe Tania Burchardt Charlotte Paddison*	The social and economic determinants of inequalities in unpaid carers' health, employment status and social isolation Inequalities in care need, unmet need and experience of services How far how we come in improving support for unpaid carers? Understanding the gap between policy ambition and evidence of success
(Symposium) Social Security While Parenting Young Children	Hannah Aldridge* Kitty Stewart &amp; Kate Anderson	Your Work Your Way - the outcomes of an innovative work support programme for potential second earners from low-income families Parenting young children in larger families on a low income: Findings from a mixed methods project on

	Marsha Wood*	the impact of the benefit cap and two-child limit  The experiences of young parents claiming Universal Credit
Dimensions of Social Policy Analysis	Lee Gregory  Martin Heneghan  Irit Porat	Applying factor analysis in the study of social needs: exploring unmet needs in Sutton Coldfield  Bringing 'place' to the centre of social policy studies  The Public Values of commercial streets: Discretion and Adaptation in municipal Inspection Styles
Families 4	Helen Kowalewska  Daniel Wincott  Severin Rapp*	Managing maternity leave: do employers discriminate?  Policy ideas (only sometimes) stick: generations of early childhood education and care policy, policy churn and transformational change  Wealth distribution and household economies of scale: Do families matter for inequality?
Welfare Reform	Hefin Gwilym  Mark Simpson*  Ricardo Velazquez Leyer*	Beyond Austerity, Brexit and Covid-19: Universal Basic Income and the Societal Reset  Social security in a 'shared space': the intergovernmental dimension to welfare state devolution in the UK  The Overhaul of Social Policy in Mexico and the Covid-19 Pandemic: Expansion and Retrenchment by a Leftist Government
Health 3	Ekin Ekici  Anis Ben Brik  Mu-Jeong Kho*	Where did it all go wrong?: An examination of diabetes policy in Turkey  Social Protection Responses to COVID 19 Pandemic in Saudi Arabia: Rethinking Policies to Achieve Universal Coverage  Thorstein Veblen and Radical Turn: How can the Crisis 'Covid-19 Pandemic' truly act as a Trigger for Self-Organising a New Resilient System of Public Healthcare?
Social Protection 2	Meiling Ling*  Akanksha Sanil  Chris Q Smith	How Taiwan's National Pension Insurance policy react to the changing family structure  COVID-19 and Inter-generational Equity: Can Social Protection Initiatives Transcend Caste Barriers in India Pension Decision Making in the New Retirement Landscape: A

		Sociological Perspective on Consumer Confusion
--	--	---